PIH recruits for PIS AFSL CEO

The Board of Professional Investment Holdings (PIH) has announced that it is seeking to recruit a CEO for its principal subsidiary company, Professional Investment Services (PIS).

Professional Investment Services is Australia's leading independently-owned financial adviser network.

The Board's intention is to provide greater focus and control to PIS with the appointment of a dedicated senior executive dedicated to leading the Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) business.

In addition, the appointment will allow Robbie Bennetts as CEO of the PIH Group to drive the Group's key responsibilities, concentrating on growth, innovation and development.
