As part of our commitment to quality of service, we have prepared this guide to provide an overview of our services and value proposition. Please take the time to review this document before engaging our services.

Who We Are and What We Stand For

As an Australian Financial Services (AFS) Licence holder, Professional Investment Services is a wholly owned subsidiary of Centrepoint Alliance Limited (Centrepoint Alliance), an ASX listed company.

Our mission at Professional Investment Services is to provide retail clients like yourself with high quality advice that you can rely on to help remove uncertainty in your life, thus positioning you to meet your needs and objectives.

Our Responsibility to You

Your adviser provides financial advice and services on behalf of Professional Investment Services and accordingly we are responsible for the financial advice and services they provide.

Our advisers are required to provide an FSG and an Adviser Profile to you prior to providing any personalised financial advice, products and/or services. The FSG, together with the Adviser Profile, is a disclosure requirement under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). If you have not received an Adviser Profile, please ask your adviser for a copy or contact us (see page 7 for contact details).

The Adviser Profile contains important information about your adviser. This includes their Authorised Representative number and/or Corporate Authorised Representative number (if applicable), accreditations, qualifications and experience, areas of advice and types of financial services they can provide, details of how they get paid and fees that you may be charged.

Our Commitment to You

Our advisers are committed to providing quality financial advice and a wide choice of products and/or services to suit individual client circumstances.

Your adviser is obliged by law to act in your best interests and provide appropriate advice when providing financial advice to you. To be in a position to provide effective advice, your adviser will need to determine your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances.

You will be asked to provide accurate information and to keep your adviser updated on any changes to your relevant circumstances to ensure the advice provided and financial products recommended remain relevant to your personal situation. You do have the right not to divulge such information. However, in this case, your adviser will warn you about the possible consequences and how this may impact the quality and reliability of the advice provided. Additionally, your adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they have insufficient information to proceed.

Before providing any financial products and/or services to you, we will need to verify your identity in accordance with the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act). Your adviser will let you know what documentation you will need to present to allow them to provide you with appropriate advice and to meet the relevant customer identification requirements under the AML/CTF Act.

To ensure that you remain on track to meet your short to long-term needs and objectives, it is vital to periodically review your financial plan. Your adviser will offer a review service appropriate to your circumstances. A fee may be charged for the ongoing advice and management of your financial affairs. Your adviser will provide you with details of any such fees which are applicable to you.

As part of our commitment to you, Professional Investment Services adheres to the Codes of Ethics/Conduct of professional associations such as the Financial Planning Association of Australia, the Financial Services Council and the Australian Association of Financial Advisers.

The principles enshrined in the abovementioned Codes serve as a minimum standard for the professional behavior of our Authorised Representatives, with advisers required, amongst other things, to act in the best interests of clients and to act honestly, efficiently and fairly in the provision of financial services.

Documents You May Receive

When your adviser provides personal financial advice to you, you may receive one or more of the following documents:

- Letter of Engagement
- Statement of Advice (SoA)
- Statement of Further Advice (SoFA) previously known as the SoA (Incorporation by Reference)
- Record of Advice (RoA)
- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

The SoA will set out the advice that has been tailored to your specific circumstances and provide you with details of all relevant disclosures including details of any remuneration payable.

The SoFA and RoA may be provided in situations where further advice is provided. The SoFA and RoA streamline the documentation process by avoiding unnecessary duplication of information already provided in previous advice documents.

A PDS will be provided if a product recommendation is made and includes detailed information on the financial product including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable).

An FDS will be issued to you in instances where you enter into an Ongoing Fee Arrangement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months. The FDS will contain information about the services you were entitled to receive, the services you actually received and the fees you paid during the period.

You may request in writing a copy of any advice document up to seven (7) years after the advice has been given.

If you have any questions about this FSG or the financial advice, investment and/or risk insurance products or services provided, please contact your adviser.

Client Services

Your adviser may accept your instructions by phone, letter, email or fax. In some instances, your adviser can only accept written instructions from you and will let you know when this occurs.

Your adviser is required to maintain a physical or electronic record of your personal information, which includes details of your relevant personal and financial circumstances.

Your adviser is also required to maintain records of documentation for any financial advice given to you in the course of taking instructions from you, as well as any advice documents your adviser has provided to you.

These records are required to be retained for at least seven (7) years.

Your Privacy

Professional Investment Services and your adviser are subject to certain legislative and regulatory requirements that necessitate collecting, holding and using detailed information that personally identifies you and/or contains information about you.

Professional Investment Services respects your privacy and is committed to protecting and maintaining the security of the personal and financial information you provide us. If you want to access your personal information at any time, please let us know.

Cross-border disclosure

Professional Investment Services may engage third party service providers to assist in the provision of products or services.

Some services may require disclosure of personal information to service providers outside Australia including the Philippines. The purpose of such disclosure is to facilitate the provision of financial services including the preparation of financial advice documents for Professional Investment Services’ advisers.

Some Professional Investment Services’ advisers may enter into their own outsourcing arrangements to countries other than the Philippines. If so, the advisers concerned will disclose these arrangements separately to you.

All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that offshore service providers comply with the Privacy Act 1988.

Licensee Remuneration

Professional Investment Services receives either a flat fee or may retain between 0% and 30% of all adviser remuneration, plus a professional indemnity insurance fee for the provision of services required under its AFS Licence.

Adviser Remuneration

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. Generally, whenever your adviser provides a recommendation for a financial product or service, your adviser may be remunerated through either:

• An initial fee for service; or
• An ongoing fee for service; or
• Commission payments from product providers where applicable; or
• A combination of any of the above.

All fees or commissions are initially paid to Professional Investment Services before being distributed to your adviser. Professional Investment Services may retain a percentage split which will be outlined in the relevant advice document.

Referrals

Should you be referred to your adviser by a third party, such as an Accountant or Mortgage Broker, the third party may receive a fee for the referral. This fee does not represent an additional cost to you. You will receive more detailed information concerning any referral fee in your SoA or other relevant advice documents.

Other Forms of Remuneration or Benefits

Professional Investment Services and/or its advisers may receive non-monetary benefits from product providers and other similar parties in specific circumstances such as:

• Where the amount is less than $300 and identical or similar benefits are not given on a frequent basis;
• The benefit has a genuine education or training purpose and is relevant to providing financial product advice; and/or
• The benefit consists of the provision of information technology software or support and is related to the provision of financial product advice in relation to the financial products issued or sold by the benefit provider.

Payments or benefits received must be disclosed in either a Conflicts of Interest Register or an Alternative Remuneration Register. A copy of Professional Investment Services’ Register is available upon request. If you wish to inspect this Register, please ask your adviser or contact us.

Product Arrangements

Professional Investment Services has arrangements with a number of financial product providers, where we receive a payment based on the total volume of funds invested or placed through the relevant product provider's platforms. These payments are either a set annual fee, or a percentage of the total funds invested with the product provider, or a percentage of the administration fees which they charge investors, or a combination of the above. Only arrangements entered into prior to 1 July 2013 and growth on those arrangements until 30 June 2014 are subject to these payments.

Professional Investment Services also has arrangements with a number of insurance product providers. These payments are based on either total inforce premium, or total new business premium.

For a list of product providers with whom Professional Investment Services has arrangements, please visit Professional Investment Services’ website or contact our Head Office.

The above payments are generally not shared with your adviser. However, if your adviser achieves a level of funds under management within certain platforms on the APL, we may remit 100% of all ongoing payments that relate to investments in particular platforms to your adviser without retaining a share of payments. These payments do not represent an additional charge to you and your adviser will disclose all investment and/or risk insurance products for which these arrangements may apply.
